4. Inter-Agency Staff Subcommittee on the Polygraph: On 10 May, after reviewing several drafts, I handed to Kimbell Johnson of the Civil Service Commission the Agency's position on the polygraph. After some discussion, it was agreed that he would circulate part of the proposal for consideration. Kimbell appeared most reluctant to take any action which might upset the status quo and he certainly avoided anything considered a confrontation between opposing viewpoints. Since we were at odds with the other agencies on the paragraphs "Conclusions" and "Reliability and Validity" of the polygraph, we agreed that we would directly approach the other subcommittee members with the view to amending these sections. Howard Osborn and [] met with Dr. Bing of the White House and effected a satisfactory change on "Reliability and Validity" and I called Fred Vinson of the Attorney General's Office and arranged an agreement on a change in the paragraph "Conclusions." I was unable to contact Bill Carey of the Bureau of the Budget, but did pass the agreed upon changes to Kimbell Johnson on 12 May. I informed Kimbell that I was somewhat confused by all the proposed changes and before I could concur on anything I had to see a new draft of the entire paper reflecting all of the recent changes. This he agreed to do.
